Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 4-6 and 24-26, drawn to a method of plant transformation with DNA constructs comprising ribonuclease barnase-encoding and restorer barstar-encoding genes, classified in class 435, subclass 199, for example.
- II. Claims 13-15 and 33-35, drawn to a method of plant transformation with a DNA construct comprising an embryo/germination-specific promoter for blocking plant reproduction, classified in class 800, subclass 287, for example.
- III. Claims 17-19 and 37-39, drawn to a method of plant transformation with a DNA construct comprising an inducible promoter operably linked to a transgene of interest, classified in class 536, subclass 24.1, for example.
- IV. Claims 20 and 40, drawn to a method of plant transformation with a DNA construct comprising a 35S promoter with tet operators, and another DNA construct encoding a tet repressor, classified in class 800, subclass 288, for example.

Claims 1-3, 7-12, 16, 21-23, 27-32, 36 and 41-42 link(s) inventions I-IV. The restriction requirement between the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), claims 1-3, 7-12, 16, 21-23, 27-32, 36 and 41-42. Upon the allowance of the linking claim(s), the restriction requirement as to the linked inventions shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be entitled to examination in the instant application. Applicant(s) are advised that if any such claim(s) depending from or including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) is/are presented in a continuation or divisional application, the claims of the continuation or divisional application may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 44 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I-IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different modes of operation and different functions.

Group I involves ribonuclease-encoding blocking constructs and ribonuclease inhibitor-encoding recovering construct, each not required by any other group. Group II involves a seed- or embryo-specific promoter and methods of evaluating seed sterility, each not required by any other group. Group III involves chemically or physically inducible promoters, and methods of applying and evaluating inducing stimuli to plants, each not required by any other group. Group IV involves operator sequences and repressor-encoding sequences, each not required by any other group.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, classification, and fields of search, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David T. Fox whose telephone number is 571-272-0795. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday from 10:30AM to 7:00PM.
